GROUP DISCUSSES RECREATIONAL GRANT

With over a hundred people present on Thursday evening, February 18th, a meeting was held in the Community Hall to obtain viewpoints of various citizens regarding the provincial grant which is being given for recreational purposes to all towns and villages in Alberta. At the grant rate of $10. per person, Drayton Valley, on the basis of the 1950 town census, would entitled to about $35,000.

The purpose of the open meeting was to decide to what use the money could be put to the best advantage form a recreational point of view. Various ideas were put forward, including a swimming pool, both open and enclosed; a large civic centre and a recreational centre. One man thought the money should be spent to build a number of small recreational projects, such as two or three open skating rinks and so on.

Chairman of the meeting was C. D. "Red" Fuhr, Mrs. Boling was secretary. With the many and varying views on how the grant should be spent stated by different ones present, it was evident that no decision could be reached in one session and another was called for March 24th.

Evansburg Fire Destroys Home

A fire in Evansburg on February 26 destroyed the home and all possessions of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Baxter and their seven children. No one was hurt, however. Mr. Baxter is employed with Dowell of Canada, Ltd. in Evansburg. Dowell has supplied the another mobile home unit and people from Evansburg, Whitecourt, Entwistle and Drayton Valley have helped out the unfortunate family.

Should anyone here wish to contribute further they may get in touch with Mr. Harold Blanchard, C.N. station agent in Evansburg.

Mr. SCHMIDT BURIED

Funeral services for Lawrence Carl Schmidt, of Violet Grove, were held from Emma's Lutheran Church in Drayton Valley on Tuesday afternoon February 23. Conducting the funeral service was Reverend Kadous, now of Mellowdale, Alberta, formerly pastor of the Lutheran Church in Tomahawk. Interment was in Drayton Valley Cemetery. Pall-bearers were Truman Fry, Les Hendon, Len Martin, George Durham, Maynard Allen and Pete Grogan.

GIRLS' CURLING CLUB

A newly-formed, local, teenage girls curling team motored to Edmonton over the week-end to participate in the first Northern Alberta Girls' Curling Association playdowns held in the Drivik Club. The rink was shipped by Norma Olberg with third, Shirley Sieben, second, May Thomason and lead Inel MacKenzie.

Altho' this team wasn't formed till after the New Year and had only six practice games, they made a fine showing against teams with a year experience in competition behind them.

In the tough, double knock-out playdowns, sponsored by Truckers Terminal of Edmonton, our local foursome lost a close 8-6 game to Ladue, then took a thrilling, last rock, win over the Balmoral Rink from Edmonton, and lost to Weraskiwin 9-7 in third and final game. The Weraskiwin rink then went ahead to the finals but lost out to the McKnight rink from Edmonton's Crestwood Club.

District Personalities

Mrs. Irma Beckley.

This week's Personality deals with a little different phase in the way of District Personalities. Mrs. Beckley is leaving Drayton Valley to make up her home in Edmonton, where her father, sisters, and daughter Irene live. For the past four years she has been at the Hotel desk, and has been described by many as "The Woman with the Million Dollar Smile". People come and go, not only in Drayton Valley, but all over the country now, but sometimes some seem to make a deeper impression on the community than others and such has been the case with "Irma".

She has gone far beyond the normal course of duty in helping out many in the past four years, from her station at the Hotel desk. She has been confidante and a sort of "mother confessor" to many of the boys who pass her desk daily. One man said that she had acted in the capacity of a private secretary for him, still in the line of her regular job, just carrying on the job, beyond its usual call or limitations.

Mrs. Beckley was raised on a farm near Macklin, Saskatchewan, as Irma Irene Atkinson. She received her schooling there also. She was married to Leo Beckley at Paradise Valley, Alta. and they farmed there till they left during the war to go to Victoria. In Victoria Irma worked in a shipyard.

Following the war they returned to Alberta where her husband worked in various parts of the province. While they were living in High Prairie, Mrs. Beckley worked in the Spaulding Hotel there. Later they came to Stony Plain and after being there for three years, came to Drayton Valley in 1954. Mrs. Beckley worked as Lloyd's Jewelry store after coming to Drayton Valley and went to work at the Hotel desk four years ago.

Mrs. Beckley has four children, Don, Melvin, Irene and Ann. All are married with the exception of Melvin. She has three grandchildren at present.

Irma's father is not well and she would like to be near him, which was part of the reason for her decision to move into Edmonton.

A surprise party was held for Mrs. Beckley in the Cardium Room on Thursday evening, last with a large number of her friends on hand for the occasion.

Presentation of a going-away gift was made at that time, to which Mrs. Beckley expressed her heart-felt thanks. She states that she hopes to leave her many friends in Drayton Valley and expects to get back here for a visit quite often.

Speaks in Parliament

Mr. Speaker, first of all I should like to add my congratulations to those which have already been extended to the mover (Mr. Morissette) of the address in reply to the speech from the throne for his expert address on the economy of the country; and to the very gracious hon. member for Grenville-Dundas (Mrs. Caselman) for her real contribution to this debate.

From some of the opposition benches we have heard a great deal about the emptiness of this speech from the throne. I would merely suggest, Mr. Speaker, that in that speech from the throne there are many things which the ordinary people in this country will appreciate and to which they are looking forward. Certainly we note with pleasure the government's announcement that amendments to the Old Age Security Act and the War Veterans Allowance Act will be placed before parliament to make these persons payable outside of Canada. We commend the government for this action; we think it is a generous and just gesture to the elderly citizens of our country.

I should also like to urge that the idea of a physical fitness council be accepted for the improvement of our physical health. I should like to add that I feel they should also accept the responsibility for mental health, and that a combined council to encourage physical and mental health could do a great deal for the health of this country. Certainly physical health is important, but the ability of our people to think clearly and logically is perhaps more important than the physical aspect.

The people in my constituency will be pleased to find in the speech from the throne the announcement that a new department of forestry will be set up. Inasmuch as a great deal of the forest industry in Alberta is concentrated in my riding we look forward to this department providing a lead, in co-operation with the provinces in the development of our forest industries, with the only pulp mill in the prairie provinces located at Hinton in my riding, this is a matter of major concern to us. With major timber industries in the Edmonton and Whitecourt areas we would urge the government to continue its program of research into the use of lodgepole pine as material for the pulp and paper industry. And we might suggest to the government that the locale of Edmonton might make an excellent site for any future forest research laboratory. One other suggestion with regard to this new department of forestry which I should like to make is that perhaps we should give consideration to placing the national park under this new department, as they are certainly related resources.

Now I should like to turn to agriculture for a few moments. It would seem to me that agriculture in Canada is now at the crossroads. Which way will it go? The large integrated companies, as suggested by one of the eastern daily papers, or to the well integrated, well managed, properly capitalized family farms? There is no doubt in my mind that the family farm is the best and most economical producer, and that it should be encouraged and helped.

It might be well at this time to place the rest of the house on record with regard to this question. Right now I gather from what the opposition say that they would rather see integration and corporate farming. The C.C.F. seem to vacillate between the two, and would appear to put more emphasis on large corporate farming. Certainly there has never been any doubt so far as the policy of this government is concerned. Our stand has been clear; to help the family farm and its operations.

We have heard a considerable amount about agriculture in this debate, some of it from hon. members opposite most uninformed with regard to the facts. What are the facts with respect to agriculture, particularly as they pertain to western agriculture? The first is that we can produce in Canada at least twice as much food as we do now. We have done this before in times of stress, and we can do it again as soon as there are markets available to absorb our production. If we were to pile up produce at government expense only to have it spoil or see it destroyed, that would be a waste which could not be excused. Only a portion of our surplus can be stimulated by overseas and local welfare agencies even on a giveaway basis. Incentive support programs will pile up unmanageable surpluses, as has been conclusively shown by the results of the United States program and by some programs here in Canada. We are a high cost economy, yet we depend on exports for our prosperity. Therefore our produce must be priced in relation to world markets.

Because of the contribution which farmers make during the war, because of tariff protection of industry, because of a high cost of production over which agriculture has no control, the government of Canada has a moral and legal obligation to the farmers of this country. The Stewart commission has shown that the corporations have failed in their efforts to do a good job in the pricing and distribution of products to the consumer, primarily because of dishonesty for profits which are higher than normal. We are convinced that these same corporations should not have control over the production of our foodstuffs. We are equally convinced that the most economical producer is the family farmer—the man who has certainly been vindicated by the Stewart commission in this regard. He must have support if he is to survive, and I am proud to say that he has the support of this government.

One of the major reasons why corporate farming cannot be as efficient as individual family farms is the fact that with family farms we have individual management and very little of the top-heavy overhead which is bogging down so many corporations at the present time and diminishing the production of goods and services in Canada. Gripes.....February and the "February blues" this land of long winter months! There is a restlessness among people caused by the confinement of winter, and just about this time each year our dispositions and patience reach a new low. The big city newspapers publish more crimes of violence during this period of time than those who do not indulge in violence have their own ways of "acting up." Right now a lot of the women here in Drayton Valley have reached an explosion point. Women guess what its about? Top, its about wash day! Seems as if a lovely day of sunshine appears and with great enthusiasm the ladies, who do not have dryers, get busy and get a big splashy clean laundry out on the lines to dry. Yet, you've guessed it! About that time her good friends and neighbors go and, not looking in either direction, set fire to a heating pile of rubbish! That enough to lead to bloodshed, especially when it happens in February. It is a delicate situation since the ladies, as no one wants to have a neighborhood fest yet its isn't exactly fun to have to rewash a full load of clothes. I guess the nicest thing to do would be to try and consider the neighbors before setting fire to rubbish, especially on the sunny days that invite women to wash clothes. It is possible to burn rubbish at off hours when clothes are not out on the lines dancing a jig in the breezy sunshine, and if there is any doubt about when to burn, it doesn't take but a minute to call the neighbors and see if they have a washing ready to put on the lines. They'll love you for it and that way you'll be sure of being a "good neighbor." "Cause the gals who want to hang clothes on the line have to be fair, too, and its not fair to always have a dab of clothes outside drying so that the neighbors never have a chance to burn. A little neighborhood meeting could settle most of the problems by deciding on the hours each day, for washing and just when rubbish could be burned with the least difficulty. Good luck, gals, no need to coming to blows over it. Its won't be too long, now till we can turn our line on the most splashing drivers so save your strength for the next battle.

Growing Pains.....It was my pleasure to attend the Public Meeting at The Elks Hall on February 18th to hear the discussion on "how" the Provincial Recreation Grant, that is now available to Drayton Valley upon application, will be used. The meeting was called to try and get the opinions of the town's residents as to just what kind of recreational facilities they felt it needed most. There were about fifty people present but all fifty seemed prepared to voice their opinions and that is exactly what they did. To me, that is a healthy situation! These were many ideas as to what our town needs in the way of additional recreational facilities for both adults and juniors and all the ideas had merit. However, the warm and needs have to be reconciled with the amount of money we have to spend. The discussion centered around a swimming pool, recreation hall or a hockey arena, all of them needed and worthwhile but varying in cost of construction and maintenance. In that the grant, based on $10.00 per person in the 1969 census, is limited in amount to approximately $50,000 or $30,000, our decision will have to consider just how much more money will be needed to construct and operate any of the proposed projects. It will also be necessary to consider where or how the additional money can be raised. I firmly believe that is a question that affects all of us whether we are taxpayers or not. When tax rates are increased it is first absorbed by the taxpayers but is eventually reflected in rents and retail prices which means we all must be prepared in some way to pay the cost. Our town is so very new that it is difficult to compare our needs, and our ability to have them, with other towns that may be about our size but 30 or 40 years older than we are. We certainly want all of the things that the towns older than we are have, such as paved streets, a complete athletic and recreational program and all of the facilities that are needed for a well balanced community life but we must remember that we can't have them all at once and that we must decide which project should be tackled first and which one is needed most and most of all, which one we can afford or are willing to afford. Let us not suffocate ourselves or our future residents by trying to keep up with the Jones. In a few years our yards and trees will be fully developed and so will our community but right now our trees have just been planted so we can't compare their shade with those of older communities nor can we compare our town's facilities. We have just been planted, so to speak, and we must allow time to grow and develop and not let our "youth" run ahead of our sensible judgement. The old adage is true, "It's not what you have that is important but what is paid for." I'm afraid that if Ken asked me what I wanted in the way of a house, he would have to turn me over to a millionaire as I've seen some lovely homes that cost a mere $350,000. I'll never get that chance but I do know what I want for a home within the price range that might be available to us. It is at that price range that I must "fence in" my dreams. And so it is with most of us and we learn to accept and be happy with our limitations. After all of this spouting, I can give you just one more suggestion. In the next 2 or 3 weeks you will receive a personal call from who will be taking a survey of the town in regard to the recreational grant and its disposition. He will have the information on the questionnaire that you will need in order to make your decision. You will then be asked to attend another public meeting at the Elks Hall on March 21st and it is hoped that you will all attend. That is your chance and the place to voice your opinions of others which could help you to make your decision. The final results are entirely up to the citizens of Drayton Valley and that means you as well as your neighbor.

Yes Edna is already pulling out his hair, I'm afraid, because of the length of this column so I had better shut it down right now and say, "I'll be seeing you next week."

The first meeting of the Women's Riding Club was to those who attended, a huge success. The electing of officers was the main objective for the evening. President - Jacqueline Woods, a very apt housewife, Secretary-Treasurer - Corrine Dine, Reporter-Tony Tully, Sherry Davies.

All in all quite a few enthusiastic women showed up and no one held back when it came to talking horse sense. Our goals are big and we would like to hear from anyone even remotely interested in our Club.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Jacqueline Woods at Hillcrest Trailer Court on March 2. Anyone wishing further information can call Jackie at 462.

REPORT FROM LEGISLATURE

By: Mrs. Cornelia R. Wood, M.L.A.

The second week of legislative business was, as usual, taken up mainly with continuation of the Throne Speech debate.

Bruce E. Watkins (P. C. Glenora) asked that departmental examinations for grades ten and eleven be reinstated.

Glen Johnson (S. C. Ponoka) stated that he did not think there was much wrong with Alberta's education system but a special Credit economy could not remedy but he did express concern over the number of tourists injured by bears in Alberta and felt that if the tourists can't be educated to stay away from the bears, the bears should be educated to stay away from the tourists. He suggested the use of film to teach bears to take to the timber every time they see a human being.

R. H. Jamieson (S. C. Jasper West) criticized the press, attacked high school curricula from his constituency. He urged more telephone lines for his area. He explained the continuous renewed confidence in the Social Credit Government as being due to:

(1) the integrity of the Premier
(2) the willingness of the Government to look ahead
(3) the ability to recognize the action required and
(4) the courage to take the action

W. Melnyk told of the mixed farming done in his constituency and the championship won for grain - seven of them in one family through the years for loss and barley. He also dealt with the educational policies of the government.

F. Gilliland (S. C. Peace River) censured the Edmonton Journal for editorial spending of glibly amounts of money on roads being built in his constituency and then proceeded to quote statistics showing the huge amounts of money spent by the Provincial Government on such roads. He suggested the paper get the facts straightened out.

Earl Hardy (S. C. Bruce) said the Federal-Provincial farm relief program is producing hardship in East Central Alberta.

Wm. Tompkins (S. C. Edmonton Norwood) claimed the recommendations of the Cameron Commission on Education as being "the ingredients of a perfect body without a human soul" and he urged that more spiritual training be given students.

Mrs. C. B. Wood (S. C. Stony Plain) expressed the concern of the Municipal Council over the proposed industrial tax, outlined the development of the Drayton ad out. Chas. Johnson (S. C. Calgary) mentioned the possibility of Premier Manning becoming Prime Minister of Canada. He had some favorable comments on editorial in the Calgary Herald.

He stated that the 1960 time issue had been held up by the Conservatives while they were in the opposition in Ottawa and since they became the government they have continued to impede progress of the West. Premier Manning adjourned the debate.

Tuesday and Thursday were Private Members days and most of Tuesday was devoted to the personal resolution asking for a hearing, proposed by R. S. Watkins (P. C. Calgary) and seconded by M. Macgregor (L.B. Lac La Poudre).

After twelve Members entered to the debate, most of them dwelling on the excessive cost of the Province of such a record, the resolution was defeated 53 to 8.

Thursday a resolution brought in by J. Landerson (S. C. Lethbridge) seconded by H. Scruggs (S. C. Fairview) asked that a meeting be called by the Federal government with representatives from all Provinces to discuss and formulate policies relative to the refugee problem. After much discussion and a substitute motion being made which was later withdrawn, the resolution passed unanimously.

During the week 15 Bills were introduced dealing with amendments to some acts and new acts such as the Eye Bank Bill.

NEW LEGION OFFICERS

New Legion officers were duly installed at 17th. Commanders: Steve Roddick, assisted by visiting member Jack Bevan, of the Edson Legion, with appropriate ceremonies recently.

President is Bill Davies; Vice-President is Ken Warfield; did Vice-President is Art Smith.

The executive is composed of: Jerry Donovan, Mark Chelchuck, (forgive us Mark, if that name is spelled wrong) Rex Carpenter, Bill Copeman, Rex Burrows, Reg Keay, Ralph Bots and Ralph Keay.

On March 17th, a dance is planned by the Legion. The dance will be on the premises of a local hall.

A ship's captain once released a group of boys and rabbits on the island in the Indian Ocean. The boys disappeared. The rabbits are still there.

The Byrd expedition of 1947 found evidence that the Atlantic is becoming warmer. It discovered places where snow and ice had retreated, leaving rocky valleys dated with small lakes.

Normally, you wouldn't expect to find a manager anywhere but behind a desk. Yet Calgary Power's District Managers, and all of their highly-trained staffs, must be ready for service every hour of the day and night, every moment of the year. The Foundation of Wealth

There came to Jesus the mother of Zebedee, requesting for her two sons positions of honor in his kingdom—"Command that my sons may sit, one on thy right and one on thy left," she did not understand that man's elevation to the place prepared for him by the Father comes through his own merit or attitude of mind, and the exercising of authority is not a "lording of rules, but a ministering to humanity. Napoleon wrote from St. Helena that "Caesar, Charlemagne and I built empires and were swept away." In contradistinction to these stands the kingdom of the Nazarene, a living, growing example of the power of loving service over commanding force; a successful outworking of harmonious principle through that self-expression which is true service.

As the spider draws his web out of himself, so do we unfold our lives through the channel of work, work which is the foundation of wealth—real wealth, I mean, not the accumulation of a lot of money. Having nothing to give, having no offering to contribute to the world, is the only poverty: a poverty of mind and spirit. Carlyle, an enthusiast on this subject, exclaimed: "Produce! In Heaven's name, produce!" A knowledge of the teaching of Jesus, that he who serves men is greater, constitutes a true background for the science of life.

Van Cliburn, the young man whose talent won the Russians, has always attended Sunday church service and mid-week prayer meetings. He gave 20% of his gross earnings to the church. Before the finals in the Moscow piano contest he made a long-distance call to his parents in Texas. "Pray for me," he asked them. "One hour from now I'll be in there playing. Will you pray for me as you never prayed before?" They prayed, and so did about a hundred others from various home-town churches. Van won the contest, and spectacular fame.

CHURCH OF GOD NEWS

The Drayton Valley Church of God Choir attended a Home Mission Meeting to start a building fund for the Jasper Place Church of God. They were about 30 present from the Drayton Valley Church. Most of the Northern Alberta Churches were represented and each brought a special or speciality with them. It was a real blessing to see that the world isn't the only ones who have fine talent. There were about 275 persons present from all the churches. A substantial offering was received. Rev. Chugg, who is a very enthusiastic speaker, gave a short talk on Jasper Place and their work there. After the meeting a lunch was served.

JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES NEWS

Some 24 Jehovah's Witnesses from the Drayton Valley Congregation will attend a three-day Convention at Edmonton February 26 to 28th. Mr. Ralph Wikander, Presiding Minister of the local group said the Assembly would be held in the Elks Hall starting Friday at 8:00 a.m. with all sessions open to the public.

The theme of the Assembly is "Let your Will Come to Pass". Mr. Wikander said that the program of Bible talks and instructions is designed to help everyone determine what God's Will really is. Several local witnesses will take part in the program which is really an enlargement of the four regular weekly Bible Studies held locally.

The principal talk on the Assembly theme will be given Sunday afternoon by Mr. C.E. Hapworth, NOTE: Mrs. Fred Chipchase's service was omitted from the W.I. news last week. Mrs. Chipchase has been elected Handicraft Convener. She will be especially busy for the next few months arranging our display for the Convener's Conference.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Melanson will be the group of students attending University Week End. Displays, tests, demonstrations, concerts and sports events are packed into three hectic days. Most high school students would rather break a leg than miss it, and the younger pupils look forward to the time when they will be old enough to go.

Gordon Tucker's friends will be relieved to hear that he is some better. Gordon has been seriously ill with rheumatic fever.

Last Wednesday nine members of Drayton Valley Women's Institute visited the Legislative Buildings. Mrs. Wood, our M.L.A., met the group at one o'clock and conducted them on a tour of the building. She even arranged for some one to conduct the group to the little tower above the dome. (The view from there is superb.) The library and museum, alone, could hold one's attention for days.

The assembly convened at 2:30 p.m. Mrs. Wood showed her guests to the gallery facing the government benches. They were warned—no cameras, no applause, no taking of notes.

Since our M.L.A. reports to this paper each week no attempt will be made here to record various speeches heard except to say that it was noticed that several M.L.A.'s laid claim to having the best constituency in the province.

We aren't prepared to debate that point with them, but we'd like to go on record as saying that our member made the best speech!

Lawrence Carl Leopold Schmidt passed away in a city hospital on Friday after a long illness.

Mr. Schmidt was born in Prance, Minnesota, on September 8, 1904. He came to Canada with his parents in 1910. At first the family lived at Irvine, Alberta; later they moved to Tomahawk. In 1931, Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt (the former Fredericka Redinger) moved to Violet Grove.

Mr. Schmidt is survived by: his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Eugene La Plante (Barbara) and Linda, two sons, David and Marvin, four grandchildren, and one sister, Mrs. Raymond Miller, of Bowden.

The Reverend Alvin Redens conducted the funeral service from Emmanuel Lutheran Church on Tuesday, February 22 and interment was in Drayton Valley Cemetery.

LeRoy Public Library made the Drayton Valley Community Library a gift of several dozen books. Mrs. Kruse and two of her assistants went to them on Monday.

THE Editor's Viewpoint Let's Build a Swimming Pool!

After weighing all the advantages and/or disadvantages of the various ideas as to the best use to which to put the recreational grant we believe that in the long run the best would be to build a swimming pool with the money. Even if the money involved is not quite sufficient to build a pool, there are enough civic organizations in town interested in seeing a swimming pool built which would help out in fund raising drives.

WHY SHOULD WE BUILD A SWIMMING POOL?

1. Water sports of all kinds are becoming more and more popular, and the number of drownings rise year by year, proportionately. a. There are at present no local facilities in Drayton Valley (in common with many other places both larger and smaller) whereby children may learn to swim. b. The river is far too treacherous. The lakes are too far away for regular swimming instruction, even were it available, which it certainly is not. When one goes to any lake to swim, or to boat we presuppose a knowledge of swimming which, all too often, the person does not have.

2. Swimming, in this day and age, is a necessity to all. Every one should know how to swim. The new provincial law which requires all boaters to wear life-jackets helps a lot, but isn't it enough.

Basic swimming knowledge is needed, for boating, sailing, water skiing and so on. All water sports are growing increasingly popular in Canada, and to take part in them one should know how to swim. On fine days all might go well, but storms often come up suddenly. And everyone should know what to do in an emergency in the water. It is common knowledge that people with some water training have confidence in the water and can think more clearly at times of crisis in the water. Those without swimming instruction might survive by floating, but they have a tendency to panic and drown.

3. With a swimming pool it will be possible to teach swimming. During the period of instruction in swimming the student swimmer would be taught how to react under all circumstances in the water. The main cause of drownings is panic, which easily be overcome with proper instruction in water safety. b. Would there be any other place more suitable for instruction in swimming and water safety than in your own local pool. In fact, for most, if they don't get it there, they won't get it at all. c. Swimming instruction is already an established practice in many towns, even smaller than Drayton Valley, and, undoubtedly, many more towns will take advantage of the opportunity to build a swimming pool with the grant funds which will now be available to them. d. With a growing number of pools throughout Alberta it will be possible to stage swimming meets, also, with various water sports and aquatic shows.

In conclusion the case can be stated simply: Let's Build the swimming pool!

reception will be held in the church on the evening service for the class.

This Sunday, February 28th, the Provincial playdowns will be held at the Darrick Club in Edmonton with the McKinnon rink representing Northern Alberta and the Allen rink of Medicine Hat representing the South.

Everything possible is being done by the Ladies Club to promote girls curling in Alberta and to further bigger and better playdown competitions. If the high calibre of curling, sportsmanship and conduct goes in the city on the well-and is an indication of what our teen-age curlers can do, then we have no choice but to sponsor adult encourage it.
